Steps to Join the Youth Ministry at Beulah Baptist Institutional Church

1. Become a Member and Complete Orientation

Begin by becoming a member of Beulah Baptist Institutional Church. All new members are required to complete the New Member Orientation Class, to receive the right hand of fellowship and become eligible to join a ministry.

2. Undergo a Criminal Background Check and Complete Ministry Forms

To ensure the safety and well-being of our youth, all prospective youth workers must consent to a criminal background check and child safety training through our 3rd Party servicer, Safe Gathering. Complete and Return the Volunteer Servant Info Form, Spiritual Assessment Form & BBIC Background Authorization Form.

3. Participate in a Trial Observation Period

Before actively serving, you'll engage in a trial observation period within your chosen youth ministry area. The duration of this period varies depending on the specific ministry. This allows you to gain insight into the ministry's operations and determine if it's the right fit for you. (Approval of Pastor Alan Harris / EGM Servant Leader may accelerate this process as seen fit for needs of ministry and individual prior experience.

4. Attend EGM Training and Leadership Meetings

Finally, attend additional training designed to help leaders and associate members grow in their spiritual gifts. This session equips you with effective strategies and best practices for working with children and teens, ensuring a positive and impactful ministry experience.
